

EC-Council

EC-Council CISO Awards Luncheon

NOMINATION FORM

NOMINEE INFORMATION

Name:

Company:

Title:

Awards:

NOMINATOR INFORMATION (Leave blank if same as above)

Name:

Company:

Title:

AWARDS CRITERIA:

CERTIFIED CISO OF THE YEAR

This award, available only to EC-Council Certified CISOs (C|CISOs), recognizes an individual's outstanding work in information security. We will be honoring one C|CISO who has contributed to the information security industry, shown tremendous professional growth and achievement, and has promoted strong, innovative security practices. When submitting your nomination package for this award, please be sure to include a summary of your work and career advancement over the last year, how you have positively impacted the information security industry. Your entry will be evaluated by a panel of highly qualified information security executives, so make sure that what you present will impress your audience.

CIO OF THE YEAR

This award, available only to Chief Information Officers (CIOs) recognizes an individual's outstanding work in information security. Good CISOs know that security cannot be achieved without the support of management. This is the information security industry's chance to recognize the leaders that support the security leaders achieve greatness. We will be honoring one executive who has contributed to the information security industry, shown tremendous professional growth and achievement, and has promoted strong, innovative security practices. When submitting your nomination package for this award, please be sure to include a summary the nominee's work and contribution to the industry over the last year. Your entry will be evaluated by a panel of highly qualified information security executives, so make sure that what you present will impress your audience.

CISO OF THE YEAR

This award, available only to Information Security Executives (VP, CISO, etc.), recognizes an individual's outstanding work in information security. We will be honoring one executive who has contributed to the information security industry, shown tremendous professional growth and achievement, and has promoted strong, innovative security practices. When submitting your nomination package for this award, please be sure to include a summary of your work and career advancement over the last year and how you have positively impacted the information security industry. Your entry will be evaluated by a panel of highly qualified information security executives, so make sure that what you present will impress your audience.

Why should your nomination win?